

RFP to provide forensic interview training

RFP Questions and Answers:

Q: Does the RFP applicant have to provide the training Statewide?

A: The purpose is to provide training related to forensic interviewing basic and advanced topics on forensic interviewing to multidisciplinary team members across the State of Minnesota. It does not imply that the grantee MUST offer the training statewide. Scholarship funding for forensic interview training is able to be requested for an individual multidisciplinary team, Tribal Nation, or specific jurisdiction based upon their needs.

Q: Does the applicant's proposal need to include both basic and advanced training, or if it was permissible to propose only advanced training.

A: The purpose of the RFP is to seek providers of basic and advanced forensic interview training funding for scholarships. The applicants do not need to provide both advanced and basic. They may apply for both or one or the other in their proposal.
